INCREASE IN GAS RATES GRANTED

State Public Service Commission
Allows Two Local Companies
All That They Ask.

EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1915

Forty Cents a Thousand For First
10,000 and Thirty Cents if
Over That Amount.

The Peoples Natural Gas company and the Central Fuel Gas Co., received an order this morning from the State Public Service Commission authorizing the increase in gas rates in this city. According to the order, the new rates will become effective April 1.

Both companies are given permission to raise the rates to forty cents a thousand cubic feet for the first 10,000 cubic feet and thirty cents per thousand cubic feet for all over 10,000 cubic feet. Both companies obtained all they asked for in their petitions. The petitions were filed in December and the hearing held, but the commission has had the question under advisement until this time. The order authorizing the raise in rates is signed by J. L. Reiley, secretary of the commission.

The order to the Peoples Natural Gas company is as follows:

In this case the petitioner, the Peoples Natural Gas Co., Rushville, Indiana, files its petition for authority to increase its rates, tolls and charges for natural gas in the City of Rushville.

A hearing was had on the petition at the rooms of the commission in Indianapolis on the 7th day of December 1914. At the hearing Watson, Tittsworth and Green appeared for the petitioner and John H. Kiplinger, for the City of Rushville.

The commission having considered the evidence finds and determines that the rates now charged, collected and enforced by said petitioner for natural gas in the City of Rushville is insufficient and that the petitioner ought to be authorized to file a schedule and put in force the following rates for natural gas in Rushville, to-wit:

For the first 10,000 cubic feet of gas used in any one month 40 cents per thousand cubic feet.

For all over 10,000 cubic feet used in any one month 30 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The petitioner asking to put said rate into force has been on file more than thirty days.

It is therefore ordered by the public service commission of Indiana that the Peoples Natural Gas company, Rushville, Indiana be authorized to file its schedule of rates as above set out and to make it same effective on and after April 1, 1915, and said rates are now hereby approved.

NEWS OF FLOUR'S ARRIVAL

C. G. Clark & Sons Get Card Announcing it Reached Rotterdam.

C. G. Clark & Sons have received a card under date of March 1, 1915, from William E. Edgar, editor of the Northwestern Miller, stating that the cargo of Belgian relief flour reached Rotterdam Saturday, February 27, at midnight. The card says that the cargo is in perfect condition and was, at the time the card was dispatched, being rapidly discharged into barges which are proceeding into Belgium under the direction of the Commission for Relief in Belgium. The fund which was raised by the Daily Republican was used to buy flour at cost at Clark's mill and added to the cargo shipped on the South Point, the one mentioned by Mr. Edgar.

IS QUARANTINED IN THE CITY PARK

Claude Maxwell, Colored, Found to be Suffering With Smallpox and is Under Guard.

EXPOSED PERSONS WATCHED

Claude Maxwell, colored, known as "Alabama", is quarantined in the city park suffering from smallpox. Maxwell has been ill for several days and this morning the health officials decided he was suffering from smallpox and made arrangements to place him in the city park under guard.

The model tuberculosis cottage that was used here for educational purposes has been converted into a pest house and placed at the north end of the city park. The health officials believed this action was the best for all concerned as there will be no danger with Maxwell placed under guard there.

Several people have been exposed to the disease but they will be watched closely by the health officials and they have no reason to fear an epidemic. It is not known where Maxwell contracted the disease.

HEYNEMAN TRIAL GETS LATE START

Man Charged With Selling Without
City License Demands Jury in Mayor's Court.

TOOK DOLLAR WITH ORDER

The case of the City of Rushville against Louis Heyneman, in which $10 is demanded because he failed to secure a peddlers license in selling goods in the city, was to be heard this afternoon in police court. The case was set for one-thirty o'clock but the attorneys were late getting together. Heyneman asked for a jury trial but there was some question as to whether it would be granted because it was a civil suit and was brought under a city ordinance.

The city brought the suit under an ordinance passed in 1888, alleging that it has been damaged in the sum of $10 by Heyneman selling without a license. Heyneman, it will be recalled, sold suits here, taking orders and collecting a dollar when the order was given.

MAKES HIS LAST ADDRESS TODAY

J. F. Meek Leaves This Afternoon
After Series of Speeches on Temperance Question.

TALKS AT FACTORY AT NOON

Measures Saloon, in Address at Assembly Room, by What its Friends Say of it.

J. F. Meek, a manufacturer of Coshocton, Ohio, concluded his series of speeches here in the interests of the "drys" with a talk in the factory district at noon today and he left soon afterwards for his home. Mr. Meek made three talks in the factory district yesterday noon and spoke last night in the court house assembly room.

Not a very large crowd heard Mr. Meek last night, but the "drys" believed this due to the fact that so many persons had had opportunity to hear him during his stay in this city.

"If the men of the churches and the men who believe in good citizenship will go to the polls and vote 'dry,' there will be no trouble about keeping the saloons out of Rushville," he said. "Whether the saloons shall return depends entirely on you men. You can't blame the brewer, the saloon keeper or the bartender."

Mr. Meek admitted that the brewers were systematic law breakers and that it is hard to keep them from violating the law, but he advanced that as a reason for keeping them from connecting up legally through the saloons with the community. He declared that it took courage for a man to announce he believes the saloon is an evil in the face of threats of boycotts, but that he had found more business and professional men here against the saloon than is usually the case.

"Every business is measured by the good it does in the community," he continued. "If the saloon is good for Rushville, you should vote it back unanimously. We know what every business deals in. Take, for instance, one of your furniture factories. It deals in wood. What does the saloon deal in? Whiskey and beer."

He then proceeded to show what those two products were. He pointed out that whiskey's affinity is water and that as soon as it enters a person's mouth it begins to absorb all the water it comes in contact with. That, he said, was the scientific reason for the "chaser" after a drink of whiskey. He declared alcohol to be an astringent poison which shrivels up the tissues and attacks the brain and nervous system. He recalled that some men said they did not drink alcohol, but beer. He explained that.

The speaker declared that in Germany beer was pure, but not in America. He said a Cincinnati brewer told him German beer could not be sold in the United States because it does not contain alcohol.

"Beer is not brewed as pure in United States," he asserted vehemently, "not because people demand alcohol but because brewers must put a nutrient to stimulate the appetite and create a demand for it."

Mr. Meek then read from a paper he had an analysis of American beer made by a noted scientist at John Hopkins university, showing the various ingredients that are found in it. He said the president of the university, one of the foremost educators in the United States stood behind the analysis.

He said the analysis showed the presence of vitrol, alum, tartar,

MUNCIE INFIRMARY BURNS DOWN TODAY

Seven Are Missing and Death List
Will go That High, is Believed
This Afternoon.

THREE BODIES RECOVERED

(By United Press.) Muncie, Ind., March 23.—Fire that destroyed the greater part of the Delaware county infirmary, an old building, early today, resulted in at least three deaths. Three charred bodies had been recovered at 1:30 this afternoon and it is believed the death toll will be seven.

The Muncie fire department and others worked rapidly searching the ruins. The nearly completed new building was saved by heroic work. The old building had been condemned. The bodies have not been identified.

The missing: Wesley Studebaker, 73; William Studebaker, 38 son of Wesley; Nelson Stout; William Medary; Samuel McCarnel, 70; Ben Stewart, day fireman, and Frank Chriss.

The fire which was first discovered in a wardrobe on the ground floor spread rapidly through the old building making it possible for rescuers to reach the men's dormitory on the upper floor and it is feared several of the missing from that section lost their lives.

BREWER'S NAME IS MENTIONED

Witness in Poll Frauds Case Says
Roberts Told Him to See Crawford Fairbanks.

TO SEE IF HE COULD GET $300

Former Night Police Chief Connects
Mayor With Plot to Get Huge
Padded Vote.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 23.—Crawford Fairbanks, millionaire brewer and recognized leader with Thomas Taggart of the Democratic party in Indiana, was mentioned from the witness stand today on the election fraud cases by John S. Nugent, former night chief of police. Nugent declared that Donn M. Roberts, mayor of Terre Haute, told him "to see Tom Beggs or Mr. Fairbanks and see if we couldn't get $300. I went to the brewery but Mr. Beggs was in Kansas City. I had started to the Wabash Realty and Loan Co., to see Mr. Fairbanks when I met Roberts and Roberts said he had seen him."

Thomas Beggs is Mr. Fairbanks' partner and his manager of the brewery and Crawford Fairbanks has his office in the office of the Wabash Realty and Loan Company.

Nugent was the most sensational witness so far in the trial which is the first attempt of the government to purify city elections of United States senators.

Nugent testified that Jim Gossom, present city controller under Roberts and the man who is slated to take Roberts' place as mayor in case Roberts is found guilty in this trial, used a big motor truck to carry foreigners on registration day from the north part of the city to Harrison township.

He said: "Gossom was bringing foreigners in the truck to and from the polls. He was loading it full of foreigners."

Nugent directly connected Donn Roberts with the plot to get in a huge padded vote from Taylorville when he said: "A short time before election Roberts told me that we had the registration in Taylorville and that now we had to get out the vote."

Nugent made remarkable charges against various defendants. He said that:

Mayor Roberts gave him a type-written list bearing names of candidates for the Prohibition party and said for him to take the list to Louis Cruzan, deputy county clerk. Cruzan promised to see that the names were placed on the official Prohibition ballot, he said.

Mayor Roberts had him appoint

Fashion Followers Have Wide Field in Oddity this Season

BY MARGARET MASON

Odd bodkins but the styles are odd. Its hard to pick the oddest. Yet that one is most odd perhaps. Which is discreet and modest.

New York, Mar. 19.—Oddity seems to be the best commodity of the season. The follower of fashion who likes to be stared at as being dashing and original certainly has a wide field to choose from. Taken from the tips of her toes to the toe of her French roll with her French lid on it she can go the limit of oddness with perfect impunity.

Beginning at the topnotch and working down the oddest champagne up to date is the leghorn hat with the transparent drop curtain of tulle through which the wearers eyes peer out seductively. Even topping the hat for oddity however, comes the flat many ribbed parasol apeing the paper parasol of far away Japan. These silk replicas of Japanese paper originals are the quintessence of quaintness. They are shown entirely covered in gay Futuristic silk or with a gayly figured centre and a plain silk border. Some are all of one toned silk with an embroidered motif like those found upon a Japanese screen, a flight of yellow swallows across a purple sky or dragon flies flitting over a field of yellow. The Pagoda parasols in black and white or blue and white stripe combinations are losing their novelty through repetition for the last two seasons but the square parasol adds a new odd note this year as does the transparent parasol of net aduff with countless ruffles of dainty hued satin ribbon. Surely these parasols are the oddest things under the sun while the peeled hair of the French roll coiffure continues as the oddest of all things under the hat.

The ruff of pleated white tulle that stands out stiffly under the chin and fastens an otherwise perfectly bare throat is certainly odd enough to suit anyone even the most finicky and then there's the peasant bodice with its V-shaped point in front that is laced up the front like a regular corset.

It is when you reach the skirt, however, that oddness fairly runs riot. There is the crinoline skirt, the skirt shirred on cords around the hips to flare out around the ankles in careless abandon, the skirt with an apron effect in front and the flippant skirt that is just one ruffle after another. A stocking so odd that it is positively wierd is one with gold braid and tiny gold buttons running up one side to the calf. The braid then runs around the leg with a gold tassel right in the front the whole effect being a simulation of a high colored shoe. Isn't that the limit?

Then there are the endless odd varieties of low and high shoes with insets of light leather outlining a tiny pointed tip of black patent kid. The heel and back of a pump of one color and the vamp of black kid with a piping of the color around the top and on all and every combination that human ingenuity can cobbler.

Verily with such a wide scope of oddness to choose from it does seem queer now doesn't it that some women are forced to wear just one earring at a time to attract attention?

Just why yellow has always been under a sort of stigma as designating the rotten streak in humanity typifying jealousy and reminiscent only of biliousness or jaundice is hard to account for now that it has been welcomed into the arms of Fashion as one of the most charming tints of the season. Sunshine, beaten gold and fields of ripened wheat are only a few of the lovely things it now reminds us of.

Exquisite are the yellow crepe de chine negligees, the pussy willow taffeta and crepe lingerie in maize tints. Beautiful the gowns of shimmering yellow satin and the hats and parasols, blouses, stockings, slippers and gloves all in the color of liquid sunshine. It truly is up to all those who have an eye for the beautiful and artistic to forget its jaundiced past and with a welcoming smile say "Hello yellow."

PROSECUTION TO FOLLOW BREWER'S NAME

F. M. Watts, former railroad detective, to shadow United States deputy marshals who were summoning witnesses before the federal grand jury in this case.

Sheriff Shea learned that Joe Bertsche, arrested as one of the hold-up men in the sensational Plaza hotel robbery, had been useful at the polls at Chicago. He released Bertsche from jail election day, armed him with a billy and an automatic revolver and stationed him at the polls. The next day Bertsche was released on bond.

Nugent was asked by Dailey whether he knew that Chappie Moran, international crook, went to Chicago and brought back $2,500 to be used at the election and to give bond for Bertsche. Nugent said he had heard that was done.

A Gerry-mander.
Even a superficial study of the legislative apportionment law passed by the 1915 Indiana Legislature reveals a number of startling inconsistencies — inconsistencies that were manufactured for the purpose of bolstering up the waning cause of Democracy throughout the state, says a statement from Republican state headquarters.

The Democratic "gerry-manders," in their enthusiasm and zeal, made a number of blunders that can be counted on to weigh heavily against this law if its constitutionality is ever attacked in the courts.

The enumeration taken in 1914 under the direction of the State showed that there were 792,625 voters in Indiana. This would make the unit for members of the house of representatives consisting of 100 members, 7926 votes.

Under this enumeration Posey county has 5709 voters, and Parke county's total is slightly larger, having 5777 votes. Under the new apportionment law Posey county is given a representative, and Parke with a larger voting population, is denied one.

Why?
Do you suppose the fact that Posey county is Democratic, and Parke county is Republican, could have made any difference?

Again, under the last census, Fountain county has a voting population of 6018, while Hancock county has but 5313 voters.

Under the apportionment law Hancock county is given a representative, and Fountain county is denied a representative.

Why?
Hancock county is reliably Democratic, while Fountain county is Republican, possibly this may have something to do toward influencing the minds and acts of the gerry-manders.

Under the last census, Jefferson county had a voting population of 6763, while Johnson county had but 5661. In spite of these figures Jefferson county with much the larger voting population was denied a representative, while Johnson county was given a representative. Jefferson county elected a Republican representative at the last election, possibly this fact had some influence on the minds of the gerry-manders. Johnson county is Democratic, possibly that is the reason it was given a representative by itself, when its voting population was 2265 short of enough to entitle it to a representative.

Jackson county lacked 1333 of having a voting population equal to the legislative unit, but under the new law Jackson county is given a representative by itself.

Daviess county has a voting population of 6810, but under the new law this county is denied a representative while Putnam county with a voting population of but 5826 is given a representative by itself. The answer possibly is found in the fact that Daviess county is Republican. While Putnam county is Democratic.

Under the new apportionment law Marion county is entitled to ten members of the house with an excess vote of 5471. Hancock adjoining Marion, lacks 2613 of having enough voters to entitle it to a representative. Why were not Hancock and Marion joined in a legislative district? Such district, possibly would not have been as reliably democratic as had been Hancock county in the past.

These are but samples of the glaring inconsistencies shown in the new apportionment law. There is some doubt in the minds of constitutional lawyers as to whether the provision of the new act making it possible for boards or county commissioners in counties having more than three representatives to divide up these counties into legislative districts, would stand a test in court.

To Extend Trade.
(Newcastle Courier.)

The merchants of Newcastle, representing all lines of the retail trade, are announcing a "Style Show," which will be held a few days preceding Easter. The chief purpose of the concerted display and advertising will be to show to the people of Newcastle and vicinity what can be bought in the dry goods, shoe, clothing and drug stores, the groceries and all other establishments. An invitation is extended to every man, woman and child in the city and county to visit Newcastle during the "Style Show," drop in all the stores, visit, become acquainted with the proprietors and look over the stocks and displays.

The idea originated with the recently conceived Trade Extension League an organization that is destined to grow and include in its membership every retail merchant in the city, with the end that it will become a factor in the commercial life of the community and a real good to all concerned—both merchant and patron.

With such splendid interurban facilities and with the spread of the automobile, there is no reason why trade cannot be attracted to Newcastle from twenty to twenty-five miles away. In fact, some business is coming here now from that distance. The latest move by the merchants to get more of it and to look after the home folks will tend to make Newcastle a still better and busier city. As it is she is famed far and wide as the best town of its size and larger in Indiana.

The Trade Extension League, which is conceived and organized for the benefit of all merchants and all classes of business, deserves the encouragement of every man interested in the welfare of the city. Its slogan is the old and familiar, yet always meaning one of "Be a Booster." Co-operate and push, get in line and do your part. A lot of dollars can be diverted to Newcastle, which now go elsewhere.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

URNS DOWN OFFER OF GERMAN BUYERS

Request for Bid on Thirty Thousand Horses Rejected by Lincoln, Nebraska, Firm

NO PROFIT IN TRANSACTIONS

(By United Press.)

Lincoln, Neb., Mar. 23.—A request that his firm of horse buyers bid on a contract for furnishing the German government 30,000 horses for service in the European war has been received by George Woods of the firm of Watson, Woods Brothers & Kelley, of Lincoln. This is the first request from an agent of the German government received by the firm though both the English and French governments have had representatives confer with the horsemen. Woods was also requested to meet the German government's agent in New York. How the animals was to be delivered into the war zone was not discussed in the messages, as that part of the problem, Woods said, would be up to the purchaser.

The firm will not bid on the contract, Woods said, because it has been found that the governments' agents resort to a sharp practice which robs the transactions of the profit. The animals are contracted for subject to inspections, he says, and when delivered a large percentage of them are declared to be below standard and so refused. Then these culls are later bought up by men representing themselves as being obliged to accept the lower figure to get rid of the animals and stop heavy feed bills. But these alleged contractors, Woods says, are in reality also buying horses for service in the war zone, and the entire shipment of horses reaches the purchasing government, though at a lower figure than the original contract price.

Amusements

The Princess will show a two reel comedy "The Adventure at Briarcliff" for the first picture tonight. Tom Moore and Margaret Courtet are featured and it is said to tell a beautiful story with enough comedy to make it an interesting picture. The other is a one act farce "The Treasurer Temple". Clara K. Young and Rodgers Lytton are featured. Tomorrow matinee and night the two reel feature "Dear Old Girl" will be shown. Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are featured.

The Gem offers the big double program for tonight. The next installment of "The Master Key" is the first picture. This is a continuation of the thrilling story and as usual features Bob Leonard and Ella Hall. The second picture is a two reel Bison drama "Custer's Last Scout." It is a thrilling war drama and features William Clifford, Sherman Bainbridge and Marie Walcamp. The last picture is a comedy entitled "Cupid in a Hospital." Billie Ritchie is featured, and it is said to be a very funny picture. Tomorrow night Pauline Bush will be shown in the two reel feature "Star of the Sea."

If you ask the theatre-goer of a few years ago what was the best musical production of that day, he will invariably say "The Prince of Pilsen". It was this that induced one prominent New York management to make a revival of the most popular of all musical comedies and this revival will be the attraction at English's opera house, Indianapolis, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 25, 26 and 27, with matinee Saturday. Cities where "The Prince of Pilsen" has played this season have been just as enthusiastic over it as when it played them during its first years and critics from these cities tell us that the play proves just as delightful, just as amusing as when it was originally produced ten years ago.

It is one of the few works of its period that is really worth reviving, and it is surprising how fresh and up-to-date it seems. The melodies, such as the love song in the first act, the famous "Message of the Violets" the stein song, with its following beautifully harmonized passage for unaccompanied male voices, and the "Tale of the Sea Shell" are as enjoyed as ever and the singers have to respond to many encores. The dialogue has been brought up to date in its allusions and the Hans Wagner of John W. Ransome is just as droll just as finished a portrayal as the first year he played it.

The entire company presenting the operetta is good, both principles and chorus and the production is elaborate and scenically beautiful. The voices are exceptionally good, which is, of course, absolutely necessary in this piece.

WHEAT IS HIGHER TODAY

Other Grain Prices do Not go Forward so Much However.

Chicago, March 23.—Wheat prices made big gains today, but other grain did not reveal such leaps forward. May options on wheat rose 3½ cents a bushel, closing at $1.55½. July wheat closed at $1.33 5/8, a gain of 2½ cents a bushel. September options gain 2 1/8 cents, being quoted at $1.10 7/8. May was up three-fourths of one cent, closing at 73½, and July went up only five-eighths of a cent, closing at 76½. The closing price on May oats was 59½ cents and July oats, 54 7/8, showing gains of three-fourths of a cent each.

WHY VOTE DRY?

1. Because we are voting against a bad business and not against any individual.
2. Because this time it is not a vote to put anyone OUT of business. There is no investment to injure. The question before us is—Shall we vote to put somebody IN a bad business.
3. Because several of the prospective saloon keepers have already been convicted of running blind tigers. A dry vote is against their lawlessness. A wet vote encourages their outlawry.
4. Because the City Administration with the help of our new prosecutor is dealing effectively with blind tigers, and can do so in the future.
5. Because the saloons will fill the county jail with drunks whose board the TAX-PAYERS must PAY.
6. Because if they are "kept out" this time they will not be able to "come back." Two successive defeats disorganize them and scatter them into wet territory elsewhere.
7. Because we will rid the city hereafter of a lawless element which will not stay where there is no saloon and its associated evils.
8. Because of the character of most of the men on the "wet" petition. Only seventy-seven have paid any kind of taxes. 361 paid no taxes at all. Fifteen could not write their own names. A goodly number of them have a police record. Many more are on the bad debtor's list. Shall we vote against the churches and the good citizenship of the city to sanction a request from such men?
9. Because to keep out the saloon breaks up the segregation of an immoral element. The saloon is headquarters for this crowd. It does a town no good to provide a meeting place for such an element.

10. Because it will rid us of an element of corruption in local politics. The saloon produces a distinctive type of politicians. It will be better and fairer to all parties to rid the county of saloon and brewery domination.
11. Because a few BLIND TIGERS are preferable to OPEN-EYED SALOONS. It is a gain to make liquor outlawry fugitive. It is better to drive it under cover and make it gain its living by stealth. This is true of all our crime. Our courts make crime fugitive. We can make liquor lawlessness fugitive easier with a blind tiger than with a licensed saloon. The license makes its corruption presence certain.
12. The liquor men and breweries are behind the present blind tiger lawlessness. Will they keep the law any better if they are permitted to sell liquor under a license? It is not a change of law that they need, but a change of heart toward all law.
13. Because if we vote "wet" we shall drain the "dry" territory about us of its undesirable "wet" element.
14. Because the breweries mean to buy this election, if they can. This means they intend to thrust their traffic upon this city against its will. This is tyranny. Remember the Boston Tea Party. Voters—throw the liquor tyranny overboard.
15. Because Government tax receipts show that there are more blind tigers in "wet" than in "dry" territory. These show one blind tiger for every 817 people in New York, one for every 561 persons in Illinois and only one for every 2,207 in "dry" Kansas. To vote back the saloon will not rid us of blind tigers. It will increase them. A druggist or a "boot-legger" who sells contrary to law in "dry" territory will also do it in "wet" territory.

know more about the daily diamond grind than he does.

Bill Donovan is a real manager. What he says goes in regard to hiring and firing of players.

This was shown in the Marty McHeal deal. Marty had been used to dealing with the Farrell-Devery crowd and when he wanted to consult about his new contract he went as usual to Captain Houston and Col. Ruppert, the owners. Bill Donovan was completely ignored.

Imagine the sorrel-topped hurler's surprise when he was curtly informed that whether he was tendered a new contract or not was strictly up to Bill Donovan. He wasn't even quoted a price at the Yankee headquarters. This was so unusual that Marty just couldn't get it straight in his head.

So he went out and hunted up Bill Donovan. Bill told him what he could expect when he signed a contract. He quoted a figure $300 over what McHeal received last year and McHeal gave him the laugh. Nothing doing, he said, and hiked back to see Capt. Houston and Col. Ruppert and dropped vague hints about a league he knew of that would be glad to have him.

He saw them. In very few words they told him to see Manager Donovan—that whatever figure he quoted was good enough for them and that all negotiations about his contract would have to be between he and Donovan. Still Marty couldn't understand it. It was so utterly unlike anything he had ever had to do with the Yankee management before that he couldn't get it. He was also slightly peeved. So when the Yanks pulled out for Savannah on their annual spring training jaunt the thespian pitcher was not numbered among those present. For about a week after the team left Marty hung around New York, seeing Ruppert and Houston almost daily and always with the same result—"See Bill Donovan."

Finally Marty gave it up and paid his own expenses to Savannah to see Bill.

This may not seem so important on the face of it, but it marks a new epoch in the life of the Yanks. Whatever the success of the team may be—good or bad—it is wholly up to Bill Donovan.

MANY JITNEYS IN KANSAS CITY

In Less Than Two Months Number There Has Grown to 300 Thus Hurting Car System

TAXI-CAB BUSINESS IS DEAD

Street Car Company Has Ordered New Cars Expecting to Buck Them—Many Independents

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 23.—The evolution of the jitney is a story of itself. Less than two months ago, the first small five passenger touring car made its appearance in Kansas City streets, offering a ride for five cents. Strap hangers swamped the little car. Within a few days fifty small touring cars were in operation over fixed routes taking as much business from the street railway company as the jitneys could handle.

Then appeared the first automobile with a bus body, with a large carrying capacity. Jitney drivers were quick to see that the increase in carrying capacity was far ahead of the increase in cost of operation. Soon many auto delivery wagons made their appearance with seats on both sides. Instantly they became popular both with the jitney fans and with the drivers. The latter discovered that a light speedy truck stood up better under the wear and tear than the converted cars. Then too, the purchaser of a truck ran no risk in his investment should the jitney business prove a failure. They reasoned they would still have a serviceable car for delivery work.

A further development of the jitney truck was the scheme of several drivers to use their cars as buses during the rush hours and contract for delivery work for some large firm from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Another development has been the number of independent owners who have entered the field with cars "For Hire" for a ten cent fare within a certain area. Some independents, also charged ten cents for a trip from the union station to any hotel and get plenty of business. But the ten cent cars are few and far between. Then there are other cars that merely bear the sign "Anywhere. Rates Reasonable." And they are cutting in heavily on the taxi-cab business.

Another class of jitneys are those who run only during the rush hours and during the fair weather. So far most of the weather has been decidedly unfavorable for the jitneys but despite this more than 300 cars are in operation with a big increase certain with the coming of spring.

The organized jitneys have a traffic manager, whom they hired from the traffic department of a railroad. They have an equipment and driver inspector and are carrying on a campaign to drive unfit and dangerous drivers from the organization. They have contracted for a construction of a jitney co-operative garage downtown to take care of their own maintenance and repair work. They now have two downtown central stations with plenty of announcers and starters.

Carriage factories are busy converting limousine and large cars into jitney buses. Hundreds of men are in business for themselves, while the Metropolitan has ordered fifty new street cars to put into the service in May to better compete with the "nickle grabbers."

The advent of the jitney has developed an acute form of the "Jitney fan" who refuses to ride in the street cars and talk jitneys all his spare time. With the good will of the community, restrictive legislation proposed is not expected to get very far. Kansas citizens already predict that within ten years the street car tracks will be torn up, the motor bus supplanting the street cars as the trolley did the cable car.

SEASON PASS FOR BEST NICKNAME

Club Directors Decide Team Should Have Name and This Was Best Way to Get it.

SCHEDULE IS ALSO WANTED

The Rush County Amusement Association offers a season pass to the person submitting the best nickname for the Rushville ball team. The contest is open to anyone in Rush county. Last year the team was known as the Areadians. The directors of the club at a meeting last night decided to offer a season pass for the best name. The pass will cover all games played here by the Indiana State league and will be worth while to the party securing it.

Answers should be mailed to the secretary of the club, Allen C. Hiner. The contest will remain open five days before the opening game and the result will be announced the day of the first game. Competent judges will be secured and the best possible nickname will be secured.

The prize of $10 and a season pass to any park in the Indiana State league for the schedule that is adopted should not be overlooked by the fans.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who prepare Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the well known kidney, liver and bladder remedy, claim that judging from evidence received from druggists everywhere, who are constantly in touch with their customers, and also indisputable proof in the form of grateful testimonials from thousands of reliable citizens, this preparation is remarkably successful in sickness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. Every interesting statement they receive regarding Swamp-Root is investigated and no testimonial is published unless the party who sends it is reported of good character. They have on file many sworn statements of recoveries in the most distressing cases. They state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is mild and gentle in its action and its healing influence is soon noticed in most cases.

Swamp-Root is purely an herbal compound and Dr. Kilmer & Co., advise all readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Daily Republican.

OFFERS A NEW EXCUSE FOR DEED

Vernie Lewis, Confessed Slayer of Balding Family at Terre Haute, Says Head Was Crushed

SAYS HE FELT HE HAD TO KILL

Examination of His Head Shows it Had Been Hurt as Described in a Mine

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind. March 23.—When Vernie Lewis, confessed murderer of the Balding family at Terre Haute, was seen today he gave a new reason for his deed. He said he met with an accident in the mine five months ago in which the back of his head was crushed.

"Since then my head has hurt and often I have wanted to kill someone," he said.

"I crept into the house that night just to see Mrs. Balding and did not want to hurt anyone but when I got in there my head began hurting and when I saw the flatirons the idea suddenly came to kill the whole family and I did it."

An examination of his head showed that it had been crushed in the back as described. Today's statement gave additional information on the relationship between Lewis and Mrs. Balding.

The confession, taken down by a stenographer, was hurriedly laid before Prosecutor Richard, Werneke and by him was presented to a waiting grand jury at Terre Haute, which promptly returned an indictment against Lewis charging him with the quadruple murder.

Detectives Fred Armstrong and Frank Feddersen who brought about the arrest of Lewis, hurried away with their prisoner in an automobile and by the time the first news of the confession became public they were half way to Indianapolis with their prisoner. To have kept him in Terre Haute over night would have meant almost certain lynching, for among the neighbors of the dead woman particularly, feeling is at high pitch and violence has been threatened repeatedly. A breakdown at Greencastle delayed the detectives and their prisoner on the way to Indianapolis.

The confession of Lewis is a startling testimonial to the truth of the ancient adage that "murder will out." When Armstrong and Feddersen began work on this case, the most fearful crime in the history of Terre Haute, they seemed confronted by a mystery that offered not a clue.

But they found one man, among the many they examined in the neighborhood, who told a lie, and they found a blood stain on one strap of a suspender worn by this man. The lie and the blood stain put together brought about the arrest and the confession.

Armstrong and Feddersen were given absolutely a free hand in their investigation. Sylvester Doyle, chief of police since the recent unpleasantness in Terre Haute politics, told his two star "sleuths" that he cared not how they caught the murderer or when. But he impressed upon them the importance of bringing to justice the guilty man.

The central figure in this tragedy tonight is a sad-faced little woman, Mrs. Lizzie Blacketer, mother of Vernie Lewis. Aside from the surviving children and the husband of the murdered woman she doubtless will be the chief sufferer.

Fate played a cruel hand at the first by guiding her to the charnel house. It was she who discovered the blood-covered bodies of Mrs. Balding and her children.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

Danville, Ky., Mar. 23.—Because he thought a train, the first he had ever seen, a "huge varmint" charging down upon him, George Mason heaved a rock at the "Royal Palm" on the Queen and Crescent route near here. Ray Pagan, of Sandusky, O., who happened to be in the path of the missile, sustained a slight scalp wound. "I thought the god dern thing was one of them monsters you see in picture books," Mason told the police. "I never seen one of 'em afore, and I was so derned scared, I jest lammed a rock right at the pesky thing."

Mason was so emphatic in relating the motives that acquitted him that the officers released him.

Mayor Cured; Skin Cleared By D. D. D.

Mayor Chapman of Ellis, Kansas, courteously says he will answer any letters written him relative to his truly marvelous cure of skin trouble with the D. D. D. Prescription. Mayor Chapman writes: "I think how I suffered last winter, how I could do no work. I was covered with terrible blotches, sometimes weeping water, sometimes worse, blotches sometimes 10 inches in diameter. FEARFUL ITCHING. It was only accidentally that I learned of the famous specific D. D. D. I wrote this in all gratitude for what D. D. D. has done for me." Results from the use of D. D. D. are immediate. The first, soft, cool touch and the itch is gone! Pimples, rashes, dandruff, disappear over night. Hard crusts and scales, raw scorching sores, salt rheum, tetter, no form of skin disease resists. All druggists have this famous specific on hand. If you will come to us we will sell you the first bottle on the guarantee that it will reach your case or your money refunded. You alone to judge. Ask also about D. D. D. Skin Soap, best for tender skin.

We Have Our Spring Buggies In!

and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of Coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

poppy heads, pine sprouts (to take the place of hops), three acids, potash and a number of other things. The speaker pointed out that not every beer contained all of those things but that all beer contained some of those ingredients. He explained the cause for adding any one of them.

"When you have learned what is in beer, are you willing to vote to return saloons so your young men may pour that stuff into their stomachs?" he asked.

While in Jeffersonville, the speaker said, he was told by the superintendent of the reformatory that 75 per cent. of the men there came by way of the saloon. He asked that even if the case that only 10 percent went by way of the saloon, was there any man who had a boy he wanted to add. No saloons, he added, and no boys are tempted.

"But if you think the boys ought to be tempted, go ahead and vote for the saloons," Mr. Meek said.

"How do we measure a man?" he asked. "Why, by what his friends say of him. So we shall measure the saloon by what its friends say of it. The saloon fellow can't object to that. He may say I am a fanatic and therefore hold that I am not qualified to talk on the saloon. But even a fanatic is not always wrong. He is a man who believes something with all of his soul and tries to make other believe the same way.

"So I am going to take the testimony of the saloons' friends, the Year Book of the United States Brewers Association. And the breweries are linked up with most of the saloons. They told us at Coshoc-ton several years ago we would lose money by voting out the saloons. But 20 out of 22 there were owned by the Terre Haute Brewing company and our place was potting a stream of gold into Terre Haute every Monday morning."

Mr. Meek then read from an article on "Prohibition and Social Psychology" by Professor Hugo Musterberg of Harvard, which appeared in McClure's for April, 1908 and was reprinted in the Year Book for 1909.

He quoted as follows: "And there can be no doubt that disregard of law is the most dangerous psychological factor in our present-day American civilization?" and added: "Is there anyone who doubts but that the brewers have less regard for the law than other institutions?"

Again he quoted: "The American saloon is the most disgusting product of such narrowness (American civilization); its dangers from politics and law, health and economics, are alarming. The saloon must disappear and can be made to disappear perhaps by higher license taxation and many other means. And with it must disappear the bar and habit of drinking standing and of mutual treating."

He quoted from the finding of "the committee of fifty" several years ago that out of 8,420 inmates of 50 alms houses, the average pauperism due directly or indirectly to the saloon was 37 per cent.

He quoted from a report of a committee on lunacy in England and Wales showing that 22.1 percent of insanity was due to alcohol. The speaker ventured the opinion that the per cent. was just as great at Richmond.

"If you have any in your community who want to become paupers or insane, just vote back the saloon," he said. "We have seen what the saloons' friends think about it. It is weighed in the balance and found wanting. The brewers want to reform the saloon, but who ever reformed a cancer? I have heard of doctors cutting out cancers, but never making one beautiful. I favor not reforming the saloon, but killing it."

He cited that in Germany 98 per cent. of persons accused of murder were punished; in Canada, 95 per cent; in Italy, 80 per cent; in United States, 1.2 per cent. This is due to lawlessness here, he said, and added that there are no instructions which have less regard for the law than the brewers and distillers and their child, the saloon.

COUNTY LOSES TWO DELEGATES

Rush Does Not Suffer as Much as Others in Apportionment of G. O. P. Delegates.

FOR STATE CONVENTION

Republican Leaders Here Elated Over Showing Here — Wayne County Loses Eleven.

The Sixth District did not fare so badly in the apportionment of delegates to the next state convention of the Republican party just made public by L. W. Henley, secretary of the Republican state organization. This district will lose 19 delegates in the state convention as well as in congressional conventions.

There will be fewer delegates to the state convention next year than there were in the Republican convention of 1914. The new law provides for one delegate for each 200 votes and an additional delegate for a major fraction of that unit.

Republican leaders in Rush county were highly elated at the showing made in this county. Every county in the district will lose some delegates but Rush county will lose but two delegates. In former years the number of delegates from Rush county to a state or congressional convention was 14 and under the new apportionment the number is 12. The showing of the Republican party here last fall is responsible for the small decrease.

Wayne county is hit harder than any county in the district. This county will lose eleven delegates. Shelby county will lose five delegates, and Fayette county will be three short of what it had in former years. Henry county is on an equal basis with Rush county in the number of delegates lost. Both counties will have two less than before.

The total number of delegates to the state convention will number 1,168 as compared to 1,439 in 1914. Under the new primary law the representation in the state convention is based on the party vote at the preceding general election for secretary of state. The total delegation from the Sixth District will number 77 this year as against 96 last year. The apportionment of the counties in this district is as follows as compared with 1914:

	1914	1916
Fayette	11	8
Franklin	7	6
Hancock	10	6
Henry	18	16
Rush	14	12
Shelby	15	10
Union	5	4
Wayne	26	15

WORK STARTED ON CHICAGO STATION

Thousands of Unemployed Put to Work When Ground is Broken for New Union Depot

BUILDING TO BE 10 STORIES

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Mar. 23.—Thousands of unemployed men were put to work today on Chicago's mammoth new Union station, a $65,000,000 project, which will be completed December 18, 1918, according to plans. The new plant will house the Pennsylvania lines, the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul. The Chicago Burlington and Quincy, and the Chicago and Alton. It does not mean a consolidation of any of the railroad terminals, simply the replacing the structure at Adams Canal streets with a great plant.

The erection of the station embraces several difficult engineering feats, chief among which is the straightening of the Chicago river for several blocks. The new station is going up to the south of the present one, occupying the blocks between Adams and Jackson streets and Clinton and Canal streets, a space two blocks east and west and one block north and south. Besides three freight terminals the plans call for 26 tracks in the passenger terminal, 20 more than the present station has. The Northwestern Station here, regarded as one of the most modern in the world, has only 16, the Pennsylvania in New York only 17. The Union Station in Washington has 33 only 15 of which however, are in use.

The main building will be ten stories and have three sub-basements. It will be an imposing looking structure with great massive columns and will cost $6,000,000 exclusive of land, sheds, power plant, and interlocking costs.

Obituary Notice.

Mary Alno Bodine, the eldest daughter of Virgil B. and Dorcas A. Bodine, was born December 17th, 1855, and passed peacefully away on March 9th, 1915, aged fifty nine years, two months and twenty-one days.

Rushville was her birth place, and has always been her home with the exception of three years, which were spent with her parents in Cincinnati, Ohio, during her early life.

Ella was of a quiet and home loving disposition, always thoughtful for the welfare of her father and mother, and devoted to her friends, giving her life for those she loved.

She united with the First Presbyterian church of Rushville, Ind., on February ninth, eighteen hundred seventy, and so long as her health, permitted, was faithful in her attendance of all services, and gave liberally of time and means to Missionary and other enterprises of the church, and was a Charter member of the first Christian Endeavor Society organized in Rushville.

While her last illness was brief, pneumonia developing only two days before her death, she had been in declining health for fifteen years, and had been a great sufferer for some time.

Of her immediate family, only two are left, a brother, Virgil C. Bodine, and a sister, Mrs. F. B. Stearns, both of Rushville, Indiana.

The influence of her holy life will ever remain a constant inspiration to one and all who knew her.

The funeral services were held at her home Friday afternoon, March 12th; her pastor, Dr. D. Ira Lambert officiating, assisted by Rev. A. D. Batchelor.

INCREASE IN GAS RATES GRANTED

State Public Service Commission
Allows Two Local Companies
All That They Ask.

EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 1915

Forty Cents a Thousand For First
10,000 and Thirty Cents if
Over That Amount.

The Peoples Natural Gas company and the Central Fuel Gas Co., received an order this morning from the State Public Service Commission authorizing the increase in gas rates in this city. According to the order, the new rates will become effective April 1.

Both companies are given permission to raise the rates to forty cents a thousand cubic feet for the first 10,000 cubic feet and thirty cents per thousand cubic feet for all over 10,000 cubic feet. Both companies obtained all they asked for in their petitions. The petitions were filed in December and the hearing held, but the commission has had the question under advisement until this time. The order authorizing the raise in rates is signed by J. L. Reiley, secretary of the commission.

The order to the Peoples Natural Gas company is as follows:

In this case the petitioner, the Peoples Natural Gas Co., Rushville, Indiana, files its petition for authority to increase its rates, tolls and charges for natural gas in the City of Rushville.

A hearing was had on the petition at the rooms of the commission in Indianapolis on the 7th day of December 1914. At the hearing Watson, Tinsworth and Green appeared for the petitioner and John H. Kiplinger, for the City of Rushville.

The commission having considered the evidence finds and determines that the rates now charged, collected and enforced by said petitioner for natural gas in the City of Rushville is insufficient and that the petitioner ought to be authorized to file a schedule and put in force the following rates for natural gas in Rushville, to-wit:

For the first 10,000 cubic feet of gas used in any one month 40 cents per thousand cubic feet.

For all over 10,000 cubic feet used in any one month 30 cents per thousand cubic feet.

The petitioner asking to put said rate into force has been on file more than thirty days.

It is therefore ordered by the public service commission of Indiana that the Peoples Natural Gas company, Rushville, Indiana be authorized to file its schedule of rates as above set out and to make the same effective on and after April 1, 1915, and said rates are now hereby approved.

C. G. Clark & Sons Get Card Announcing it Reached Rotterdam.

C. G. Clark & Sons have received a card under date of March 1, 1915, from William E. Edgar, editor of the Northwestern Miller, stating that the cargo of Belgian relief flour reached Rotterdam Saturday, February 27, at midnight. The card says that the cargo is in perfect condition and was, at the time the card was dispatched, being rapidly discharged into barges which are proceeding into Belgium under the direction of the Commission for Relief in Belgium. The fund which was raised by the Daily Republican was used to buy flour at cost at Clark's mill and added to the cargo shipped on the South Point, the one mentioned by Mr. Edgar.

IS QUARANTINED IN THE CITY PARK

Claude Maxwell, Colored, Found to be Suffering With Smallpox and
is Under Guard.

EXPOSED PERSONS WATCHED

Claude Maxwell, colored, known as "Alabama", is quarantined in the city park suffering from smallpox. Maxwell has been ill for several days and this morning the health officials decided he was suffering from smallpox and made arrangements to place him in the city park under guard.

The model tuberculosis cottage that was used here for educational purposes has been converted into a pest house and placed at the north end of the city park. The health officials believed this action was the best for all concerned as there will be no danger with Maxwell placed under guard there.

Several people have been exposed to the disease but they will be watched closely by the health officials and they have no reason to fear an epidemic. It is not known where Maxwell contracted the disease.

HEYNEMAN TRIAL GETS LATE START

Man Charged With Selling Without
City License Demands Jury in
Mayor's Court.

TOOK DOLLAR WITH ORDER

The case of the City of Rushville against Louis Heyneman, in which $10 is demanded because he failed to secure a peddlers license in selling goods in the city, was to be heard this afternoon in police court. The case was set for one-thirty o'clock but the attorneys were late getting together. Heyneman asked for a jury trial but there was some question as to whether it would be granted because it was a civil suit and was brought under a city ordinance.

The city brought the suit under an ordinance passed in 1888, alleging that it has been damaged in the sum of $10 by Heyneman selling without a license. Heyneman, it will be recalled, sold suits here, taking orders and collecting a dollar when the order was given.

MAKES HIS LAST ADDRESS TODAY

J. F. Meek Leaves This Afternoon
After Series of Speeches on Temperance Question.

TALKS AT FACTORY AT NOON

Measures Saloon, in Address at Assembly Room, by What its Friends Say of It.

J. F. Meek, a manufacturer of Coshorton, Ohio, concluded his series of speeches here in the interests of the "drys" with a talk in the factory district at noon today and he left soon afterwards for his home. Mr. Meek made three talks in the factory district yesterday noon and spoke last night in the court house assembly room.

Not a very large crowd heard Mr. Meek last night, but the "drys" believed this due to the fact that so many persons had had opportunity to hear him during his stay in this city.

"If the men of the churches and the men who believe in good citizenship will go to the polls and vote 'dry,' there will be no trouble about keeping the saloons out of Rushville," he said. "Whether the saloons shall return depends entirely on you men. You can't blame the brewer, the saloon keeper or the bartender."

Mr. Meek admitted that the brewers were systematic law breakers and that it is hard to keep them from violating the law, but he advanced that as a reason for keeping them from connecting up legally through the saloons with the community. He declared that it took courage for a man to announce he believes the saloon is an evil in the face of threats of boycotts, but that he had found more business and professional men here against the saloon than is usually the case.

"Every business is measured by the good it does in the community," he continued. "If the saloon is good for Rushville, you should vote it back unanimously. We know what every business deals in. Take, for instance, one of your furniture factories. It deals in wood. What does the saloon deal in? Whiskey and beer."

He then proceeded to show what those two products were. He pointed out that whiskey's affinity is water and that as soon as it enters a person's mouth it begins to absorb all the water it comes in contact with. That, he said, was the scientific reason for the "chaser" after a drink of whiskey. He declared alcohol to be an astringent poison which shrivels up the tissues and attacks the brain and nervous system. He recalled that some men said they did not drink alcohol, but beer. He explained that.

The speaker declared that in Germany beer was pure, but not in America. He said a Cincinnati brewer told him German beer could not be sold in the United States because it does not contain alcohol.

"Beer is not brewed as pure in United States," he asserted vehemently. "not because people demand alcohol but because brewers must put a nutrient to stimulate the appetite and create a demand for it."

Mr. Meek then read from a paper he had an analysis of American beer made by a noted scientist at John Hopkins university, showing the various ingredients that are found in it. He said the president of the university, one of the foremost educators in the United States stood behind the analysis.

He said the analysis showed the presence of vitrol, alum, tartar,

MUNCIE INFIRMARY BURNS DOWN TODAY

Seven Are Missing and Death List

This Afternoon.

THREE BODIES RECOVERED

(By United Press.)

Muncie, Ind., March 23.—Fire that destroyed the greater part of the Delaware county infirmary, an old building, early today, resulted in at least three deaths. Three charred bodies had been recovered at 1:30 this afternoon and it is believed the death toll will be seven.

The Muncie fire department and others worked rapidly searching the ruins. The nearly completed new building was saved by heroic work. The old building had been condemned. The bodies have not been identified.

The missing: Wesley Studebaker, 73; William Studebaker, 38 son of Wesley; Nelson Stout; William Medary; Samuel McCarnel, 70; Ben Stewart, day fireman, and Frank Chriss.

The fire which was first discovered in a wardrobe on the ground floor spread rapidly through the old building making it possible for rescuers to reach the men's dormitory on the upper floor and it is feared several of the missing from that section lost their lives.

BREWER'S NAME IS MENTIONED

Witness in Poll Frauds Case Says
Roberts Told Him to See Crawford Fairbanks.

TO SEE IF HE COULD GET $300

Former Night Police Chief Connects
Mayor With Plot to Get Huge
Padded Vote.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 23.—

Crawford Fairbanks, millionaire brewer and recognized leader with Thomas Taggart of the Democratic party in Indiana, was mentioned from the witness stand today on the election fraud cases by John S. Nugent, former night chief of police. Nugent declared that Donn M. Roberts, mayor of Terre Haute, told him "to see Tom Beggs or Mr. Fairbanks and see if we couldn't get $300. I went to the brewery but Mr. Beggs was in Kansas City. I had started to the Wabash Realty and Loan Co., to see Mr. Fairbanks when I met Roberts and Roberts said he had seen him."

Thomas Beggs is Mr. Fairbanks' partner and his manager of the brewery and Crawford Fairbanks has his office in the office of the Wabash Realty and Loan Company.

Nugent was the most sensational witness so far in the trial which is the first attempt of the government to purify city elections of United States senators.

Nugent testified that Jim Gosson, present city controller under Roberts and the man who is slated to take Roberts' place as mayor in case Roberts is found guilty in this trial, used a big motor truck to carry foreigners on registration day from the north part of the city to Harrison township.

He said: "Gosson was bringing foreigners in the truck to and from the polls. He was loading it full of foreigners."

Nugent directly connected Donn Roberts with the plot to get in a huge padded vote from Taylorville when he said: "A short time before election Roberts told me that we had the registration in Taylorville and that now we had to get out the vote."

Nugent made remarkable charges against various defendants. He said that:

Mayor Roberts gave him a type-written list bearing names of candidates for the Prohibition party and said for him to take the list to Louis Cruzan, deputy county clerk. Cruzan promised to see that the names were placed on the official Prohibition ballot, he said.

Mayor Roberts had him appoint

Fashion Followers Have Wide Field in Oddity this Season

BY MARGARET MASON

Odd bodkins but the styles are odd. Its hard to pick the oddest. Yet that one is most odd perhaps Which is discreet and modest.

New York, Mar. 19.—Oddity seems to be the best commodity of the season. The follower of fashion who likes to be stared at as being dashingly different and original certainly has a wide field to choose from. Taken from the tips of her toes to the toe of her French roll with her French lid on it she can go the limit of oddness with perfect impunity.

Beginning at the topnotch and working down the oddest champagne up to date is the leghorn hat with the transparent drop curtain of tulle through which the wearers eyes peer out seductively. Even topping the hat for oddity however, comes the flat many ribbed parasol apeing the paper parasol of far away Japan. These silk replicas of Japanese paper originals are the quintessence of quaintness. They are shown entirely covered in gay Futuristic silk or with a gayly figured centre and a plain silk border. Some are all of one toned silk with an embroidered motif like those found upon a Japanese screen, a flight of yellow swallows across a purple sky or dragon flies flitting over a field of yellow. The Pagoda parasols in black and white or blue and white stripe combinations are losing their novelty through repetition for the last two seasons but the square parasol adds a new odd note this year as does the transparent parasol of net adrift with countless ruffles of dainty hued satin ribbon. Surely these parasols are the oddest things under the sun while the peeled hair of the French roll coiffure continues as the oddest of all things under the hat.

The ruff of pleated white tulle that stands out stiffly under the chin and fastens an otherwise perfectly bare throat is certainly odd enough to suit anyone even the most finicky and then there's the peasant bodice with its V-shaped point in front that is laced up the front like a regular corset.

It is when you reach the skirt, however, that oddness fairly runs riot. There is the evoline skirt, the skirt shirred on cords around the hips to flare out around the ankles in careless abandon, the skirt with an apron effect in front and the flippant skirt that is just one ruffle after another. A stocking so odd that it is positively wierd is one with gold braid and tiny gold buttons running up one side to the calf. The braid then runs around the leg with a gold tassel right in the front the whole effect being a simulation of a high colored shoe. Isn't that the limit?

Then there are the endless odd varieties of low and high shoes with insets of light leather outlining a tiny pointed tip of black patent kid. The heel and back of a pump of one color and the vamp of black kid with a piping of the color around the top and on all and every combination that human ingenuity can cobbler.

Verily with such a wide scope of oddness to choose from it does seem queer now doesn't it that some women are forced to wear just one earring at a time to attract attention?

Just why yellow has always been under a sort of stigma as designating the rotten streak in humanity typifying jealousy and reminiscent only of biliousness or jaundice is hard to account for now that it has been welcomed into the arms of Fashion as one of the most charming tints of the season. Sunshine, beaten gold and fields of ripened wheat are only a few of the lovely things it now reminds us of.

Exquisite are the yellow crepe de chine negligees, the pussy willow taffeta and crepe lingerie in maize tints. Beautiful the gowns of shimmering yellow satin and the hats and parasols, blouses, stockings, slippers and gloves all in the color of liquid sunshine. It truly is up to all those who have an eye for the beautiful and artistic to forget its jaundiced past and with a welcoming smile say "Hello yellow."

Sheriff Shea learned that Joe Bertsche, arrested as one of the hold-up men in the sensational Plaza hotel robbery, had been useful at the polls at Chicago. He released Bertsche from jail election day, armed him with a billy and an automatic revolver and stationed him at the polls. The next day Bertsche was released on bond.

Nugent was asked by Dailey whether he knew that Chappie Moran, international crook, went to Chicago and brought back $2,500 to be used at the election and to give bond for Bertsche. Nugent said he had heard that was done.

A Gerrymander.

Even a superficial study of the legislative apportionment law passed by the 1915 Indiana Legislature reveals a number of startling inconsistencies — inconsistencies that were manufactured for the purpose of bolstering up the waning cause of Democracy throughout the state, says a statement from Republican state headquarters.

The Democratic "gerry-manders," in their enthusiasm and zeal, made a number of blunders that can be counted on to weigh heavily against this law if its constitutionality is ever attacked in the courts.

The enumeration taken in 1914 under the direction of the State showed that there were 792,625 voters in Indiana. This would make the unit for members of the house of representatives consisting of 100 members, 7926 votes.

Under this enumeration Posey county has 5709 voters, and Parke county's total is slightly larger, having 5777 votes. Under the new apportionment law Posey county is given a representative, and Parke with a larger voting population, is denied one.

Why?

Do you suppose the fact that Posey county is Democratic, and Parke county is Republican, could have made any difference?

Again, under the last census, Fountain county has a voting population of 6018, while Hancock county has but 5313 voters.

Under the apportionment law Hancock county is given a representative, and Fountain county is denied a representative.

Why?

Hancock county is reliably Democratic, while Fountain county is Republican, possibly this may have something to do toward influencing the minds and acts of the gerry-manders.

Under the last census, Jefferson county had a voting population of 6763, while Johnson county had but 5661. In spite of these figures Jefferson county with much the larger voting population was denied a representative, while Johnson county was given a representative. Jefferson county elected a Republican representative at the last election, possibly this fact had some influence on the minds of the gerry-manders. Johnson county is Democratic, possibly that is the reason it was given a representative by itself, when its voting population was 2265 short of enough to entitle it to a representative.

Jackson county lacked 1333 of having a voting population equal to the legislative unit, but under the new law Jackson county is given a representative by itself.

Daviess county has a voting population of 6810, but under the new law this county is denied a representative while Putnam county with a voting population of but 5826 is given a representative by itself. The answer possibly is found in the fact that Daviess county is Republican. While Putnam county is Democratic.

Under the new apportionment law Marion county is entitled to ten members of the house with an excess vote of 5471. Hancock adjoining Marion, lacks 2613 of having enough voters to entitle it to a representative. Why were not Hancock and Marion joined in a legislative district? Such district, possibly would not have been as reliably democratic as had been Hancock county in the past.

These are but samples of the glaring inconsistencies shown in the new apportionment law. There is some doubt in the minds of constitutional lawyers as to whether the provision of the new act making it possible for boards or county commissioners in counties having more than three representatives to divide up these counties into legislative districts, would stand a test in court.

To Extend Trade.
(Newcastle Courier.)

The merchants of Newcastle, representing all lines of the retail trade, are announcing a "Style Show," which will be held a few days preceding Easter. The chief purpose of the concerted display and advertising will be to show to the people of Newcastle and vicinity what can be bought in the dry goods, shoe, clothing and drug stores, the groceries and all other establishments. An invitation is extended to every man, woman and child in the city and county to visit Newcastle during the "Style Show," drop in all the stores, visit, become acquainted with the proprietors and look over the stocks and displays.

The idea originated with the recently conceived Trade Extension League an organization that is destined to grow and include in its membership every retail merchant in the city, with the end that it will become a factor in the commercial life of the community and a real good to all concerned—both merchant and patron.

With such splendid interurban facilities and with the spread of the automobile, there is no reason why trade cannot be attracted to Newcastle from twenty to twenty-five miles away. In fact, some business is coming here now from that distance. The latest move by the merchants to get more of it and to look after the home folks will tend to make Newcastle a still better and busier city. As it is she is famed far and wide as the best town of its size and larger in Indiana.

The Trade Extension League, which is conceived and organized for the benefit of all merchants and all classes of business, deserves the encouragement of every man interested in the welfare of the city. Its slogan is the old and familiar, yet always meaning one of "Be a Booster." Co-operate and push, get in line and do your part. A lot of dollars can be diverted to Newcastle, which now go elsewhere.

THE EASIEST WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you want to keep your hair looking rich, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

URNS DOWN OFFER OF GERMAN BUYERS

Request for Bid on Thirty Thousand Horses Rejected by Lincoln, Nebraska, Firm

NO PROFIT IN TRANSACTIONS

(By United Press.)

Lincoln, Neb., Mar. 23.—A request that his firm of horse buyers bid on a contract for furnishing the German government 30,000 horses for service in the European war has been received by George Woods of the firm of Watson, Woods Brothers & Kelley, of Lincoln. This is the first request from an agent of the German government received by the firm though both the English and French governments have had representatives confer with the horsemen. Woods was also requested to meet the German government's agent in New York. How the animals was to be delivered into the war zone was not discussed in the messages, as that part of the problem, Woods said, would be up to the purchaser.

The firm will not bid on the contract, Woods said, because it has been found that the governments' agents resort to a sharp practice which robs the transactions of the profit. The animals are contracted for subject to inspections, he says, and when delivered a large percentage of them are declared to be below standard and so refused. Then these culs are later bought up by men representing themselves as being obliged to accept the lower figure to get rid of the animals and stop heavy feed bills. But these alleged contractors, Woods says, are in reality also buying horses for service in the war zone, and the entire shipment of horses reaches the purchasing government, though at a lower figure than the original contract price.

Amusements

The Princess will show a two reel comedy "The Adventure at Briarcliff" for the first picture tonight. Tom Moore and Margaret Courtlet are featured and it is said to tell a beautiful story with enough comedy to make it an interesting picture. The other is a one act farce "The Treasurer Temple". Clara K. Young and Rodgers Lytton are featured. Tomorrow matinee and night the two reel feature "Dear Old Girl" will be shown. Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne are featured.

The Gem offers the big double program for tonight. The next installment of "The Master Key" is the first picture. This is a continuation of the thrilling story and as usual features Bob Leonard and Ella Hall. The second picture is a two reel Bison drama "Custer's Last Scout." It is a thrilling war drama and features William Clifford, Sherman Bainbridge and Marie Walcamp. The last picture is a comedy entitled "Cupid in a Hospital." Billie Ritchie is featured, and it is said to be a very funny picture. Tomorrow night Pauline Bush will be shown in the two reel feature "Star of the Sea."

If you ask the theatre-goer of a few years ago what was the best musical production of that day, he will invariably say "The Prince of Pilsen". It was this that induced one prominent New York management to make a revival of the most popular of all musical comedies and this revival will be the attraction at English's opera house, Indianapolis, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 25, 26 and 27, with matinee Saturday. Cities where "The Prince of Pilsen" has played this season have been just as enthusiastic over it as when it played them during its first years and critics from these cities tell us that the play proves just as delightful, just as amusing as when it was originally produced ten years ago.

It is one of the few works of its period that is really worth reviving, and it is surprising how fresh and up-to-date it seems. The melodies, such as the love song in the first act, the famous "Message of the Violets" the stein song, with its following beautifully harmonized passage for unaccompanied male voices, and the "Tale of the Sea Shell" are as enjoyed as ever and the signers have to respond to many encores. The dialogue has been brought up to date in its allusions and the Hans Wagner of John W. Rausome is just as droll just as finished a portrayal as the first year he played it.

The entire company presenting the operetta is good, both principles and chorus and the production is elaborate and scenically beautiful. The voices are exceptionally good, which is, of course, absolutely necessary in this piece.

WHEAT IS HIGHER TODAY

Other Grain Prices do Not go Forward so Much However.

Chicago, March 23.—Wheat prices made big gains today, but other grain did not reveal such leaps forward. May options on wheat rose 33 cents a bushel, closing at $1.55 1/2. July wheat closed at $1.33 5/8, a gain of 2 1/2 cents a bushel. September options gain 2 1/8 cents, being quoted at $1.10 7/8. May was up three-fourths of one cent, closing at 73 3/4, and July went up only five-eighths of a cent, closing at 76 1/4. The closing price on May oats was 59 3/4 cents and July oats, 54 7/8, showing gains of three-fourths of a cent each.

WHY VOTE DRY?

- 1. Because we are voting against a bad business and not against any individual.
- 2. Because this time it is not a vote to put anyone OUT of business. There is no investment to injure. The question before us is—Shall we vote to put somebody IN a bad business.
- 3. Because several of the prospective saloon keepers have already been convicted of running blind tigers. A dry vote is against their lawlessness. A wet vote encourages their outlawry.
- 4. Because the City Administration with the help of our new prosecutor is dealing effectively with blind tigers, and can do so in the future.
- 5. Because the saloons will fill the county jail with drunks whose board the TAX-PAYERS must PAY.
- 6. Because if they are "kept out" this time they will not be able to "come back." Two successive defeats disorganize them and scatter them into wet territory elsewhere.
- 7. Because we will rid the city hereafter of a lawless element which will not stay where there is no saloon and its associated evils.
- 8. Because of the character of most of the men on the "wet" petition. Only seventy-seven have paid any kind of taxes. 361 paid no taxes at all. Fifteen could not write their own names. A goodly number of them have a police record. Many more are on the bad debtor's list. Shall we vote against the churches and the good citizenship of the city to sanction a request from such men?
- 9. Because to keep out the saloon breaks up the segregation of an immoral element. The saloon is headquarters for this crowd. It does a town no good to provide a meeting place for such an element.

- 10. Because it will rid us of an element of corruption in local politics. The saloon produces a distinctive type of politicians. It will be better and fairer to all parties to rid the county of saloon and brewery domination.
- 11. Because a few BLIND TIGERS are preferable to OPEN-EYED SALOONS. It is a gain to make liquor outlawry fugitive. It is better to drive it under cover and make it gain its living by stealth. This is true of all our crime. Our courts make crime fugitive. We can make liquor lawlessness fugitive easier with a blind tiger than with a licensed saloon. The license makes its corruption presence certain.
- 12. The liquor men and breweries are behind the present blind tiger lawlessness. Will they keep the law any better if they are permitted to sell liquor under a license? It is not a change of law that they need, but a change of heart toward all law.
- 13. Because if we vote "wet" we shall drain the "dry" territory about us of its undesirable "wet" element.
- 14. Because the breweries mean to buy this election, if they can. This means they intend to thrust their traffic upon this city against its will. This is tyranny. Remember the Boston Tea Party. Voters—throw the liquor tyranny overboard.
- 15. Because Government tax receipts show that there are more blind tigers in "wet" than in "dry" territory. These show one blind tiger for every 817 people in New York, one for every 561 persons in Illinois and only one for every 2,207 in "dry" Kansas. To vote back the saloon will not rid us of blind tigers. It will increase them. A druggist or a "boot-legger" who sells contrary to law in "dry" territory will also do it in "wet" territory.

know more about the daily diamond grind than he does.

Bill Donovan is a real manager. What he says goes in regard to hiring and firing of players.

This was shown in the Marty McHeal deal. Marty had been used to dealing with the Farrell-Devery crowd and when he wanted to consult about his new contract he went as usual to Captain Houston and Col Ruppert, the owners. Bill Donovan was completely ignored.

Imagine the sorrel-topped hurler's surprise when he was curtly informed that whether he was tendered a new contract or not was strictly up to Bill Donovan. He wasn't even quoted a price at the Yankee headquarters. This was so unusual that Marty just couldn't get it straight in his head.

So he went out and hunted up Bill Donovan. Bill told him what he could expect when he signed a contract. He quoted a figure $300 over what McHeal received last year and McHeal gave him the laugh. Nothing doing, he said, and liked back to see Capt. Houston and Col. Ruppert and dropped vague hints about a league he knew of that would be glad to have him.

He saw them. In very few words they told him to see Manager Donovan—that whatever figure he quoted was good enough for them and that all negotiations about his contract would have to be between he and Donovan. Still Marty couldn't understand it. It was so utterly unlike anything he had ever had to do with the Yankee management before that he couldn't get it. He was also slightly peeved. So when the Yanks pulled out for Savannah on their annual spring training jaunt the thespian pitcher was not numbered among those present. For about a week after the team left Marty hung around New York, seeing Ruppert and Houston almost daily and always with the same result—"See Bill Donovan."

Finally Marty gave it up and paid his own expenses to Savannah to see Bill.

This may not seem so important on the face of it, but it marks a new epoch in the life of the Yanks. Whatever the success of the team may be—good or bad—it is wholly up to Bill Donovan.

Wind is bad on face and hands, try "Raymond Chap." 312t18

MANY JITNEYS IN KANSAS CITY

In Less Than Two Months Number There Has Grown to 300 Thus Hurting Car System

TAXI-CAB BUSINESS IS DEAD

Street Car Company Has Ordered New Cars Expecting to Buck Them—Many Independents

(By United Press.)

Kansas City, Mo., Mar. 23.—The evolution of the jitney is a story of itself. Less than two months ago, the first small five passenger touring car made its appearance in Kansas City streets, offering a ride for five cents. Strap hangers swamped the little car. Within a few days fifty small touring cars were in operation over fixed routes taking as much business from the street railway company as the jitneys could handle.

Then appeared the first automobile with a bus body, with a large carrying capacity. Jitney drivers were quick to see that the increase in carrying capacity was far ahead of the increase in cost of operation. Soon many auto delivery wagons made their appearance with seats on both sides. Instantly they became popular both with the jitney fans and with the drivers. The latter discovered that a light speedy truck stood up better under the wear and tear than the converted cars. Then too, the purchaser of a truck ran no risk in his investment should the jitney business prove a failure. They reasoned they would still have a serviceable car for delivery work.

A further development of the jitney truck was the scheme of several drivers to use their cars as buses during the rush hours and contract for delivery work for some large firm from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Another development has been the number of independent owners who have entered the field with cars "For Hire" for a ten cent fare within a certain area. Some independents, also charged ten cents for a trip from the union station to any hotel and get plenty of business. But the ten cent cars are few and far between. Then there are other cars that merely bear the sign "Anywhere. Rates Reasonable." And they are cutting in heavily on the taxi-cab business.

Another class of jitneys are those who run only during the rush hours and during the fair weather. So far most of the weather has been decidedly unfavorable for the jitneys but despite this more than 300 cars are in operation with a big increase certain with the coming of spring. The organized jitneys have a traffic manager, whom they hired from the traffic department of a railroad. They have an equipment and driver inspector and are carrying on a campaign to drive unfit and dangerous drivers from the organization. They have contracted for a construction of a jitney co-operative garage downtown to take care of their own maintenance and repair work. They now have two downtown central stations with plenty of announcers and starters.

Carriage factories are busy converting limousine and large cars into jitney buses. Hundreds of men are in business for themselves, while the Metropolitan has ordered fifty new street cars to put into the service in May to better compete with the "nickle grabbers."

The advent of the jitney has developed an acute form of the "Jitney fan" who refuses to ride in the street cars and talk jitneys all his spare time. With the good will of the community, restrictive legislation proposed is not expected to get very far. Kansas citizens already predict that within ten years the street car tracks will be torn up, the motor bus supplanting the street cars as the trolley did the cable car.

SEASON PASS FOR BEST NICKNAME

Club Directors Decide Team Should Have Name and This Was Best Way to Get it.

SCHEDULE IS ALSO WANTED

The Rush County Amusement Association offers a season pass to the person submitting the best nickname for the Rushville ball team. The contest is open to anyone in Rush county. Last year the team was known as the Arcadians. The directors of the club at a meeting last night decided to offer a season pass for the best name. The pass will cover all games played here by the Indiana State league and will be worth while to the party securing it.

Answers should be mailed to the secretary of the club, Allen C. Hiner. The contest will remain open five days before the opening game and the result will be announced the day of the first game. Competent judges will be secured and the best possible nickname will be secured.

The prize of $10 and a season pass to any park in the Indiana State league for the schedule that is adopted should not be overlooked by the fans.

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES

They Are Closely Observing Public Health Conditions.

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview on the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., who prepare Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the well known kidney, liver and bladder remedy, claim that judging from evidence received from druggists everywhere, who are constantly in touch with their customers, and also indisputable proof in the form of grateful testimonial letters from thousands of reliable citizens, this preparation is remarkably successful in sickness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. Every interesting statement they receive regarding Swamp-Root is investigated and no testimonial is published unless the party who sends it is reported of good character. They have on file many sworn statements of recoveries in the most distressing cases. They state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is mild and gentle in its action and its healing influence is soon noticed in most cases. Swamp-Root is purely an herbal compound and Dr. Kilmer & Co., advise all readers who feel in need of such a remedy to give it a trial. It is on sale at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention The Daily Republican.

LITTLE WOMAN PROVED A SPY

She Seemed a Friend of Foreign Legion Under French Colors But Was Caught in Act.

GERMAN SYSTEM THROUGH

One Detected in Regiment and Suddenly Disappears—Executed in Word Passed Around.

BY PHIL RADER.

(Written for United Press.)

(Copyright 1915 by United Press.)

London, March 1.—There was a little old woman of French nationality, whose shot riddled little cottage was about a mile behind our trenches. She had a huge supply of cider, and when one of us got money, and a chance, we would sneak through the trenches back to her little house, knock on the shattered windows until she opened it and handed abig cup full of apple juice. "My good old husband" as she described him, was killed in the cottage by a German bullet. We buried the body for her and asked her why she didn't move.

"No! No!" she exclaimed. "This is my home, and if I die anywhere, I die here."

One night we saw 3 little flickers of light come from a chink of the shuttered windows. On a hill, far away, in the German lines, we saw a tiny light blink three times. For three nights we watched the sparkling chink in the widow's window blind. We didn't want to believe she was a spy, because if she were taken away we would miss our cider. But, at last we had to act. We caught her one night in the deed, and our officers sent her away. I don't know where. She sold her country for German gold.

Her's was only one instance of the thoroughness of the German spy system.

One day we found a telephone wire running through the beet fields from the German trenches to a point far behind our lines. It ended at a poplar tree where a German spy, hidden in the branches, had been phoning the enemy all the details of our movements. But Demielle was the spy of all spies. He lived with us in our trenches, he shot at the Germans, and cursed them as we did. But all the time, he was sending messages to them. And then he was caught in the act, he kept silence like a man. Our officers took charge of him, and he disappeared—executed, we heard. In those early days of the war, when foreigners in Paris were forming a foreign legion, Demielle, a splendid looking, big man, with a beard that gave him distinguished appearance and a manner that was the essence

Falling Hair Or Itching Scalp

Now that Parisian Sage—an expensive preparation that supplies every hair and scalp need—can be had from Johnson's Drug Store, it is certainly needless to have thin, brittle, matted stringy or faded hair. No matter how unsightly your hair, how badly it is falling, or how much dandruff, Parisian Sage is all that is needed. Every trace of dandruff is removed with one application, the hair roots are nourished and stimulated to grow new hair, itching scalp and falling hair cease.

Parisian Sage is certainly one of the most invigorating tonics, and will surely make your hair soft, abundant and radiant with life and beauty.

of courtesy, got his name into the list and was accepted. He had money in unlimited quantities, and before we departed from Paris to the front, he gave parties right and left to little groups of comrades. His profession was that of an engineer of a sugar making machine, and he knew every inch of the sugar beet country in which our regiment was finally stationed.

It was a collie that proved the undoing of Demielle, a fine-haired animal which of all the stray dogs which made their homes in the trenches had the most friends among the men. But the collie liked Demielle best. We found out afterwards that Demielle used to save his food, and even go hungry himself in order to keep himself high in the collie's good will. How Demielle ever trained the dog to go to the German trenches from ours, we were never able to figure out, but we first suspected Demielle when we saw him lift the dog to the edge of our trench and send him on his way by throwing a stone toward the German lines, which were only one hundred and fifty feet distant.

When the dog came back that night a sentry caught him and searched him. Under his collar was a map which Demielle had drawn with a note written in German, "we don't understand this map. Can't you make it plainer?" The sentry put the note back in place and let the dog go to Demielle's subway hut. Two men were watching Demielle when the dog entered. Demielle put his finger under the dog's collar, pulled out the note and began to read it when the men jumped on him. Demielle was very cold about it, but he knew that his end had come. He was taken away and sentenced to death by a court martial. Luckily the firing squad was not chosen from among the men in our trench. The officers paraded him before us as an example. He kept his head high, and seemed satisfied with what he had done for his country. Then they took him away somewhere to die.

But the next day we were forced to perform several executions, that were harder for some of the men, I think, than shooting their old trench-mate would have been.

"Kill all of the dogs in your trenches" ran the new command. I think some of them who had made pets of stray dogs wept the night the order came. One fellow I know slept with his dog that night. We couldn't kill the dogs in cold blood; we were acquainted with them, just as we were with each other. They had been the bright spots in our muddy, draggled lives. Muddy, mangled and dirty as they are, we were little cleaner. When there wasn't a smile left on our faces, during the rainy or extra dangerous days, there was always a sparkle in the eyes of the trench dogs and they were always ready to play.

"But we had to kill them! A Portuguese who loved a white fox terrier, discovered the easiest way. He threw a stone out of the trench; the little fellow went after it and just as he was picking it in his mouth, about a dozen of our rifles blazed at him and over he went. We made believe to ourselves that we had been shooting at the Germans and that "Poopoo" had been killed by accident. So our six dog friends went into eternity that day, laying themselves down among the bodies of the dead soldiers and dying deaths that we ourselves might meet at any time.

"A dog can't expect a better death than his master" said the Portuguese with tears welling in his eyes.

No soldier in all this great war has found a harder thing to do than we had that day when the dogs were sentenced to die.

for the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from shore to shore, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

OFFERS A NEW EXCUSE FOR DEED

Vernie Lewis, Confessed Slayer of Balding Family at Terre Haute, Says Head Was Crushed

SAYS HE FELT HE HAD TO KILL.

Examination of His Head Shows it Had Been Hurt as Described in a Mine

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind. March 23.—When Vernie Lewis, confessed murderer of the Balding family at Terre Haute, was seen today he gave a new reason for his deed. He said he met with an accident in the mine five months ago in which the back of his head was crushed.

"Since then my head has hurt and often I have wanted to kill someone," he said.

"I crept into the house that night just to see Mrs. Balding and did not want to hurt anyone but when I got in there my head began hurting and when I saw the flatirons the idea suddenly came to kill the whole family and I did it."

An examination of his head showed that it had been crushed in the back as described. Today's statement gave additional information on the relationship between Lewis and Mrs. Balding.

The confession, taken down by a stenographer, was hurriedly laid before Prosecutor Richard Werneke and by him was presented to a waiting grand jury at Terre Haute, which promptly returned an indictment against Lewis charging him with the quadruple murder.

Detectives Fred Armstrong and Frank Feddersen who brought about the arrest of Lewis, hurried away with their prisoner in an automobile and by the time the first news of the confession became public they were half way to Indianapolis with their prisoner. To have kept him in Terre Haute over night would have meant almost certain lynching, for among the neighbors of the dead woman particularly, feeling is at high pitch and violence has been threatened repeatedly. A breakdown at Greencastle delayed the detectives and their prisoner on the way to Indianapolis.

The confession of Lewis is a startling testimonial to the truth of the ancient adage that "murder will out." When Armstrong and Feddersen began work on this case, the most fearful crime in the history of Terre Haute, they seemed confronted by a mystery that offered not a clue.

But they found one man, among the many they examined in the neighborhood, who told a lie, and they found a blood stain on one strap of a suspender worn by this man. The lie and the blood stain put together brought about the arrest and the confession.

Armstrong and Feddersen were given absolutely a free hand in their investigation. Sylvester Doyle, chief of police since the recent unpleasantness in Terre Haute politics, told his two star "sleuths" that he cared not how they caught the murderer or when. But he impressed upon them the importance of bringing to justice the guilty man.

The central figure in this tragedy tonight is a sad-faced little woman, Mrs. Lizzie Blacketer, mother of Vernie Lewis. Aside from the surviving children and the husband of the murdered woman she doubtless will be the chief sufferer.

Fate played a cruel hand at the first by guiding her to the charnel house. It was she who discovered the blood-covered bodies of Mrs. Balding and her children.

TODAY'S ODDEST STORY

Danville, Ky., Mar. 23.—Because he thought a train, the first he had ever seen, a "huge varmint" charging down upon him, George Mason heaved a rock at the "Royal Palm" on the Queen and Crescent route near here. Ray Fagan, of Sandusky, O., who happened to be in the path of the missile, sustained a slight scalp wound. "I thought the god dern thing was one of them monsters you see in picture books," Mason told the police. "I never seen one of 'em afore, and I was so derned scared, I jest lammed a rock right at the pesky thing." Mason was so emphatic in relating the motives that accented him that the officers released him.

Mayor Cured; Skin Cleared By D. D. D.

Mayor Chapman of Ellis, Kansas, courteously says he will answer any letters written him relative to his truly marvelous cure of skin trouble with the D. D. D. Prescription. Mayor Chapman writes: "I think how I suffered last winter, how I could do no work. I was covered with terrible blotches, sometimes weeping water, sometimes worse, blotches sometimes 10 inches in diameter. FEARFUL ITCHING. It was only accidentally that I learned of the famous specific D. D. D. I wrote this in all gratitude for what D. D. D. has done for me." Results from the use of D. D. D. are immediate. The first, soft, cool touch and the itch is gone! Pimples, rashes, dandruff, disappear over night. Hard crusts and scales, raw, scorching sores, salt rheum, tetter, no form of skin disease resists. All druggists have this famous specific on hand. If you will come to us we will sell you the first bottle on the guarantee that it will reach your case or your money refunded. You alone to judge. Ask also about D. D. D. Skin Soap, best for tender skin. THOS. W. LYTLE, Druggist and they are ready for your inspection and we extend you an invitation to call and look them over this week as it will be to your interest to make your selection between now and the closing day of our Opening. We will explain why when you come in. We have the finest buggies ever placed on a sample floor and we want you to look them over. If you need a Storm Buggy this is the correct place to get what you want. We are not selling them at a reduction of $25.00, however, but we are selling them just the same as we have all season at $100.00. We have always said that our price was just as low at any time as the cut prices of our competitors, and we are always ready to do as we advertise. When a merchant advertises he has made a cut of $25.00 on a buggy use a little common sense in forming an opinion about this like the fellow that was in a state of coma, and his friends thought he was dead, but before time to bury him he showed signs of life. When he rallied enough to talk his friends asked him how it seemed to be dead. "Dead," he exclaimed, "I knew all the time what was going on and I knew I wasn't dead, too, because my feet were cold and I was hungry and I knew that if I was in heaven I wouldn't be hungry and if I was in the other place my feet wouldn't be cold. Now if you will study out 99 per cent of the cut price argument you will see just about as much to them as there is in this little story. In other words, somebody has to be the goat, and the man that takes $25.00 off of a buggy during a sale must have a lot on, when he is selling regular. Buy your buggies where the price is always the same and as low as any cut price sale ever advertised in Rush County. Let the other fellow be the goat this time.

We Have Our Spring Buggies In!

poppy heads, pine sprouts (to take the place of hops), three acids, putash and a number of other things. The speaker pointed out that not every beer contained all of those things but that all beer contained some of those ingredients. He explained the cause for adding any one of them.

"When you have learned what is in beer, are you willing to vote to return saloons so your young men may pour that stuff into their stomachs?" he asked.

While in Jeffersonville, the speaker said, he was told by the superintendent of the reformatory that 75 per cent. of the men there came by way of the saloon. He asked that even if the case that only 10 percent went by way of the saloon, was there any man who had a boy he wanted to add. No saloons, he added, and no boys are tempted.

"But if you think the boys ought to be tempted, go ahead and vote for the saloons," Mr. Meek said.

"How do we measure a man?" he asked. "Why, by what his friends say of him. So we shall measure the saloon by what its friends say of it. The saloon fellow can't object to that. He may say I am a fanatic and therefore hold that I am not qualified to talk on the saloon. But even a fanatic is not always wrong. He is a man who believes something with all of his soul and tries to make other believe the same way.

"So I am going to take the testimony of the saloons friends, the Year Book of the United States Brewers Association. And the breweries are linked up with most of the saloons. They told us at Coshoc-ton several years ago we would lose money by voting out the saloons. But 20 out of 22 there were owned by the Terre Haute Brewing company and our place was pouring a stream of gold into Terre Haute every Monday morning."

Mr. Meek then read from an article on "Prohibition and Social Psychology" by Professor Hugo Musterberg of Harvard, which appeared in McClure's for April, 1908 and was reprinted in the Year Book for 1909.

He quoted as follows: "And there can be no doubt that disregard of law is the most dangerous psychological factor in our present-day American civilization?" and added: "Is there anyone who doubts but that the brewers have less regard for the law than other institutions?"

Again he quoted: "The American saloon is the most disgusting product of such narrowness (American civilization); its dangers from politics and law, health and economics, are alarming. The saloon must disappear and can be made to disappear perhaps by higher license taxation and many other means. And with it must disappear the bar and habit of drinking standing and of mutual treating."

He quoted from the finding of "the committee of fifty" several years ago that out of 8,420 inmates of 50 alms houses, the average pauperism due directly or indirectly to the saloon was 37 per cent.

He quoted from a report of a committee on lunacy in England and Wales showing that 22.1 percent of insanity was due to alcohol. The speaker ventured the opinion that the per cent. was just as great at Richmond.

"If you have any in your community who want to become paupers or insane, just vote back the saloon," he said. "We have seen what the saloons friends think about it. It is weighed in the balance and found wanting. The brewers want to reform the saloon, but who ever reformed a cancer? I have heard of doctors cutting out cancers, but never making one beautiful. I favor not reforming the saloon, but killing it."

He cited that in Germany 98 per cent. of persons accused of murder were punished; in Canada, 95 per cent; in Italy, 80 per cent; in United States, 1.2 per cent. This is due to lawlessness here, he said, and added that there are no instructions which have less regard for the law than the brewers and distillers and their child, the saloon.

COUNTY LOSES TWO DELEGATES

Rush Does Not Suffer as Much as Others in Apportionment of G. O. P. Delegates.

FOR STATE CONVENTION

Republican Leaders Here Elated Over Showing Here — Wayne County Loses Eleven.

The Sixth District did not fare so badly in the apportionment of delegates to the next state convention of the Republican party just made public by L. W. Henley, secretary of the Republican state organization. This district will lose 19 delegates in the state convention as well as in congressional conventions.

There will be fewer delegates to the state convention next year than there were in the Republican convention of 1914. The new law provides for one delegate for each 200 votes and an additional delegate for a major fraction of that unit.

Republican leaders in Rush county were highly elated at the showing made in this county. Every county in the district will lose some delegates but Rush county will lose but two delegates. In former years the number of delegates from Rush county to a state or congressional convention was 14 and under the new apportionment the number is 12. The showing of the Republican party here last fall is responsible for the small decrease.

Wayne county is hit harder than any county in the district. This county will lose eleven delegates. Shelby county will lose five delegates, and Fayette county will be three short of what it had in former years. Henry county is on an equal basis with Rush county in the number of delegates lost. Both counties will have two less than before.

The total number of delegates to the state convention will number 1,168 as compared to 1,439 in 1914. Under the new primary law the representation in the state convention is based on the party vote at the preceding general election for secretary of state. The total delegation from the Sixth District will number 77 this year as against 96 last year. The apportionment of the counties in this district is as follows as compared with 1914:

	1914	1916
Fayette	11	8
Franklin	7	6
Hancock	10	6
Henry	18	10
Rush	14	12
Shelby	15	10
Union	5	4
Wayne	26	15

WORK STARTED ON CHICAGO STATION

Thousands of Unemployed Put to Work When Ground is Broken for New Union Depot

BUILDING TO BE 10 STORIES

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Mar. 23.—Thousands of unemployed men were put to work today on Chicago's mammoth new Union station, a $65,000,000 project, which will be completed December 18, 1918, according to plans. The new plant will house the Pennsylvania lines, the Chicago Milwaukee and St. Paul. The Chicago Burlington and Quincy, and the Chicago and Alton. It does not mean a consolidation of any of the railroad terminals, simply the replacing the structure at Adams Canal streets with a great plant.

The erection of the station embraces several difficult engineering feats, chief among which is the straightening of the Chicago river for several blocks. The new station is going up to the south of the present one, occupying the blocks between Adams and Jackson streets and Clinton and Canal streets, a space two blocks east and west and one block north and south. Besides three freight terminals the plans call for 26 tracks in the passenger terminal, 20 more than the present station has. The Northwestern Station here, regarded as one of the most modern in the world, has only 16, the Pennsylvania in New York only 17. The Union Station in Washington has 33 only 15 of which however, are in use.

The main building will be ten stories and have three sub-basements. It will be an imposing looking structure with great massive columns and will cost $6,000,000 exclusive of land, sheds, power plant, and interlocking costs.

Obituary Notice.

Mary Alno Bodine, the eldest daughter of Virgil B. and Doreas A. Bodine, was born December 17th, 1855, and passed peacefully away on March 9th, 1915, aged fifty nine years, two months and twenty-one days.

Rushville was her birth place, and has always been her home with the exception of three years, which were spent with her parents in Cincinnati, Ohio, during her early life.

Ella was of a quiet and home loving disposition, always thoughtful for the welfare of her father and mother, and devoted to her friends, giving her life for those she loved.

She united with the First Presbyterian church of Rushville, Ind., on February ninth, eighteen hundred seventy, and so long as her health permitted, was faithful in her attendance of all services, and gave liberally of time and means to Missionary and other enterprises of the church, and was a Charter member of the first Christian Endeavor Society organized in Rushville.

While her last illness was brief, pneumonia developing only two days before her death, she had been in declining health for fifteen years, and had been a great sufferer for some time.

Of her immediate family, only two are left, a brother, Virgil C. Bodine, and a sister, Mrs. F. B. Stearns, both of Rushville, Indiana.

The influence of her holy life will ever remain a constant inspiration to one and all who knew her.

The funeral services were held at her home Friday afternoon, March 12th; her pastor, Dr. D. Ira Lambert officiating, assisted by Rev. A. D. Batchelor.
